Who We Are

About Us

The Squaxin Island Gaming Agency (TGA) is established to monitor the gaming activities, investigate wrongdoing, conduct background investigations, issue licenses, and perform other duties as required for the regulation and integrity of Gaming on the Reservation as the Commission directs.

The Commission acts under the authority of the Tribe and is composed of five (5) members of the Squaxin Island Tribe, all of whom are appointed by the Tribal Council.

Mission, Vision and Values

Mission

Directed and empowered by the Tribe, Commission, Tribal Gaming Ordinance, Federal Law and Tribal/State Compact we are....

“Exercising Tribal sovereignty by governing and regulating gambling activities licensed or allowed by the Tribe”

The ability for the tribe to participate in the gambling industry and benefit from the revenues generated is directly related to our ability to maintain a safe, fair and ethical gaming environment through our own regulation.

Vision: “Squaxin Island Gaming Commission seeks to ensure a safe, fair and ethical gaming experience.”

What does it look like?

1. We encourage tribal members to pursue careers within the Tribe and design career paths for their success within the Tribal Gaming Agency.
2. We provide training to team members to ensure a well-rounded knowledge of gaming activities and protection for customers and assets.
3. Team members work together and communicate effectively and respectfully.
4. We establish reasonable protections and enforce the regulations.

Create, Monitor and Enforce

Keys to Success

- Maintain regulatory oversight of gaming activities.
- Maintain licensing functions and controls.
- Maintain records and reports.
- Proper communication and equipment.

Regulatory Agencies

Regulatory Agencies must have the ability to create rules, monitor activity and enforce regulations.

We seek voluntary compliance of our licensees through affective regulatory controls and administered enforcement.

Our team members our trained professionals that engage licensees and the public to ensure confidence of our customers and tribal leaders.
