

Reporting Child Abuse or Neglect

Who is required to report child abuse or neglect?

Anyone who has reasonable cause to believe that a child has suffered abuse or neglect can, in good faith, report. If you are identified as a mandated reporter, you are required by law to report your concerns to the Department of Children, Youth & Families (DCYF), Child Abuse Hotline or law enforcement (RCW 26.44.030).

Mandatory reporters include:

DCYF supports families and responds to concerns of abuse and neglect. Responses may include a DCYF worker visiting a family's home to meet with the family and children. They will assess what has happened as well as offer supports to increase the safety for the family.

What circumstances justify a report and when should I report?

If there is reasonable cause to believe that a child has suffered abuse or neglect or may be at risk of abuse or neglect, the report must be made at the first opportunity but in no case longer than 48 hours. "Reasonable cause" means a person witnesses or receives a credible written or oral report alleging abuse, including sexual contact or neglect of a child (RCW 26.44.030).
