1. Background and Scope of Work

☒ See additional Section 15. Scope of Work Pictures at end of RFP

A. Introduction

The Little Creek Casino Resort (Casino) is a wholly owned enterprise of the Squaxin Island Tribe, a federally recognized Indian tribe. The Squaxin Island Tribe is a diversified community of self-governing, resilient people united by shared values and traditions. Revenues from Casino operations support government services for the Tribe and the surrounding community.

The Casino is in the process of repurposing an area of the main building between the hotel lobby and the Squaxin Island Seafood bar called the Boardwalk. The Boardwalk area will have a seating area accompanied by authentic tribal artwork specific to Squaxin Island tribal culture.

To assist in repurposing the Boardwalk area to dining area, the Casino desires to engage the services of a Squaxin Island Tribal Artist to provide authentic tribal site-specific artwork to be showcased on the Boardwalk in a designated area in the newly remodeled area.

B. Request for Proposal for Squaxin Island Tribal Artwork

The Little Creek Casino Resort is soliciting a request for proposals (RFP) for a Squaxin Island Tribal Artist to provide authentic tribal designs to be displayed in the remodeled gaming area. The site-specific artwork should:

Demonstrate artistic excellence

- Enhance the gaming area with distinctive, aesthetic experience both highly visible and welcoming to guests entering the main casino entrance.
- Highlight the importance of the property and provide recognizable identity for the Squaxin Island Culture.

- Be original art appropriate for the designated areas.
- Create a signature presence for the gaming area. This should be a representation of the Squaxin Island culture and history.
- Provide excitement and interest for the community as a whole.
- Celebrate Squaxin Island Tribe's identity and rich heritage.

2. Bid Requirements

This RFP is open to established Squaxin Island Tribal artists. Only professional artists with reviewable portfolios are eligible to apply, e.g., prior participation in one or more juried art competitions/shows, artistic exhibitions, public installations, gallery representation, etc.

Artists interested in this project must prepare and submit the following:

- Proposed Artwork Concept for Little Creek Casino Resort. This proposal shall include conceptual design drawings or sketches, sufficient to communicate the artist concept. It should include a timeline, budget and describe the specifications for the artwork.
- Artist's Statement. No more than 200 words in length, describing your work and how your work addresses understanding of Squaxin Island tribal culture and history.
- Current Resume. If submitting as a team, an individual resume should be submitted for each team member describing the individual or collective artistic accomplishments.
- Work Samples of prior artwork displayed in public spaces.

Optional: Each artist may include up to three selections of support materials such as reviews, news articles, web links and other related information.

3. Instructions to Prospective Contractors – Submittal Instructions

Renay VanDelden, Procurement & Supply Chain Manager, will receive submittals on behalf of the Little Creek Casino Resort. Submit all materials in a 10"x13" envelope clearly marked in the lower left-hand corner with the name of the RFP. Do not use staples, paperclips, folders, or report covers on any application materials. Email proposals are accepted at Renay.VanDelden@littlecreek.com.

A complete submittal should contain:

- A. Completed Bid Proposal Form
- B. Completed Contractor/Consultant Qualifications Form and supplemental information
- C. Proof of Indian Ownership (if applicable)

4. Review Process

- Members of the Squaxin Island Tribal Council along with a few executives Little Creek Casino Resort will review the submittals and select an artist to create an original site-specific artwork.

The final commission of artwork for the site will be awarded no later than June 15th, 2023.

Criteria for Selection:

- An initial proposal that reflects Project Intent as described in this document.
- A body of work reflecting artistic excellence in Squaxin Island tribal art.
- Experience working in tribal settings and public process.
- Experience fabricating and installing permanent artwork suitable for the environment.
- References provided as part of this application which will be contacted prior to final selection.

The selected artist will be required to execute this contract form with the Squaxin Island Tribe.

5. Proposal Due Date and Time

Interested Contractors/Consultants must submit their proposals no later than Wednesday, May 24 at 2PM.

- E. Artist's Expenses - Artists are solely responsible for their own expenses in preparing, and submitting, a proposal and for subsequent negotiations with the Casino, if any. The Casino will not be liable to any Artist for any claims, whether for costs or damages incurred by the Artist in preparing, and submitting, the proposal, loss of anticipated profit in connection with any final Contract, or any other matter whatsoever.
- F. Currency and Taxes - Prices quoted are to be in U.S. dollars.
- G. Acceptance of Proposals - This RFP should not be construed as an agreement to procure goods or services by the Casino. The Casino is not bound to enter into a Contract with the Artist who submits the lowest priced proposal or with any Artist. Proposals will be assessed in light of the evaluation criteria. The Casino will be under no obligation to receive further information, whether written or oral, from any Artist.
- H. Form of Contract - By submission of a proposal, the Artist agrees that, should it be identified as the preferred owner's representative/project manager, it is willing to enter into a Contract with the Casino, subject to successful negotiations by both parties, in writing.
- I. Liability for Errors - While the Casino has used considerable efforts to ensure an accurate representation of information in this RFP, the information contained herein is supplied solely as a guideline for Artists. The information is not guaranteed or warranted to be accurate by the Casino, nor is it necessarily comprehensive or exhaustive. Nothing in this RFP is intended to relieve Artists from forming their own opinions and conclusions with respect to the matters addressed in this RFP.
- J. Modification of Terms - The Casino reserves the right to modify the terms of this RFP at any time in its sole discretion. This includes the right to cancel this RFP at any time prior to entering into a Contract with the preferred owner's representative/project manager.
- K. Ownership of Proposals - All documents, including proposals submitted by Artists in response to this RFP become the property of the Casino. They will be received and held in confidence to the extent allowable by law.
- L. Use of Request for Proposal- This RFP, or any portion thereof, may not be used for any purpose other than the submission of proposals.
- M. Confidentiality of Information - Information pertaining to the Casino obtained by the Artist as a result of participation in this Project is confidential and must not be disclosed without written authorization from the Casino.
- N. Material Ownership - All materials submitted, including but not limited to proposals in response to this RFP and any and all information, documentation, and presentations provided by the Artist to the Casino on a go-forward basis, shall become the sole property of Casino.
- O. All costs directly and indirectly related to the preparation of a response to the RFP are the sole responsibility of each Artist.
- P. Late responses will not be accepted.

10. Tribal Sovereignty

Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive the sovereign immunity of the Tribe, the Squaxin Island Tribe, or the enterprises, agents, or employees of any of them.

11. Right to Reject

The Squaxin Island Tribe and their agents reserve the right to reject any or all bids, or any part thereof, to waiver irregularities or informalities in the bid or bidding process.

12. Notification of Award

The Squaxin Island Tribe reserves all rights to award, or not award, any of the individual items listed under the scope of work above upon issuance of an Award of Contract. The Tribe will provide written notice to the successful bidder of actual items awarded.

It is expected that a decision selecting the successful Interested Contractor/Consultant will be made within four (4) weeks of the closing date for the receipt of proposals.
