TRIBAL COUNCIL INTERPRETATION NO. 1

TEST FISHING "CONTRACTS"

1. The Squaxin Island Tribal Council has been requested to interpret the following Tribal Council action(s):

Intent of Section XV, A. of the Squaxin Island Fishing Ordinance, in particular the assignability of a "contract" between the Tribal Council or the Fisheries Manager and an authorized tribal fisherman for the performance of a test fishery.

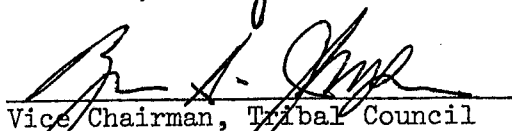

2. The Squaxin Island Tribal Council hereby declares that the proper interpretation of its action(s), at the time of the action(s), is as follows:

That any agreement made with a tribal fisherman for the performance of a test fishery shall not be assignable. The requirements for a test fishery regarding notification to Washington Department of Fisheries and Washington Department of Game of participants, fisherman identification number and gear type used could not be met if assignability of contracts to perform test fisheries were allowed, especially if contracts were assigned without the appropriate tribal staff being informed of such action, or if assignment occurred within 24 hours of the start of a test fishery.
