

SQUAXIN ISLAND TRIBE

WEST 81 HIGHWAY 108
SHELTON, WASHINGTON 98584
(206) 426-9781

WHEREAS, the Squaxin Island Tribal Council is the governing body of the Squaxin Island Tribe of Indians by the authority of the Constitution and Bylaws of the Squaxin Island Tribe as approved and adopted by the General Body and the Secretary of the Interior on July 8, 1965; and,

WHEREAS, the Squaxin Island Tribe has the reserved treaty right to harvest fish and game off-reservation notwithstanding any international treaty or federal statute to the contrary; and,

WHEREAS, the Squaxin Island Tribe has the right and responsibility to enact laws, ordinances, and regulations to protect, enhance, and control the harvest of those resources; and,

WHEREAS, the enforcement of Tribal laws, ordinances and regulations will be enhanced if all tribes, who have a right to harvest fish and game off-reservation, coordinate their enforcement operations through the cooperation of enforcement officers from each tribe with the enforcement officers of each other Tribe; and,

WHEREAS, the cooperative enforcement described in this resolution will provide for better protection of those resources, and better communication and understanding between the various law enforcement agencies which exert authority in the harvest and management of off-reservation resources; and,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED;

1. The Squaxin Island Tribe does hereby agree to participate in cooperative enforcement as described in the Medicine Creek Cooperative Enforcement policy attached to this resolution and incorporated herein by reference;
2. Further the Squaxin Island Tribe does hereby agree to participate in cooperative enforcement as described in the Medicine Creek Cooperative Enforcement policy attached to this resolution and incorporated herein by reference.
3. And finally, the Squaxin Island Tribe hereby authorizes the enforcement officers of other participating tribes, to enforce the ordinances and regulations of the Squaxin Island Tribe as stated in the attached agreement with the following limitations and conditions:

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions and activities. It emphasizes that this is crucial for ensuring transparency and accountability in the organization's operations.

2. Key Findings and Recommendations

The findings of the audit indicate that there are several areas where improvements are needed. These include strengthening internal controls, enhancing the accuracy of financial reporting, and ensuring compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

It is recommended that management take prompt action on these findings to address the identified weaknesses. This should involve implementing a comprehensive system of internal controls and providing regular training to staff to ensure they are up-to-date on the latest regulations and best practices.

The audit also identified a number of minor issues that, while not critical, should be resolved to ensure the overall integrity of the organization's financial statements. These issues include discrepancies in the accounting records and some irregularities in the timing of certain transactions.

In conclusion, the audit has provided a clear picture of the organization's current financial health and has identified the key areas for improvement. It is the responsibility of management to act on these findings and to ensure that the organization maintains the highest standards of financial integrity and transparency.

The audit was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and is intended to provide an independent and objective assessment of the organization's financial statements.

The audit report is intended for the use of the shareholders and other interested parties. It is not intended to be used for any other purpose and should not be relied upon as a basis for any other decision.

The audit was conducted by the audit firm of [Name], who are independent of the organization and have no financial interest in the organization. The audit was completed on [Date] and the audit report was issued on [Date].

The audit was conducted in accordance with the terms of the audit engagement letter, which is available to all interested parties. The audit firm is not responsible for the accuracy or completeness of the information provided to it by the organization's management.

The audit was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and is intended to provide an independent and objective assessment of the organization's financial statements.
