Squaxin Island Tribal Council

Dear Council Members:

NICS has suggested that the Tribe appoint a Judicial Officer to handle some of the duties of the court when the judge is not available. Attached is a proposed ammendment to the Tribal Court Procedures Ordinance listing the duties the judicial officers will be required to perform. NICS personnel will give the necessary training, and will recommend any additional training they feel the officer should have.

At this time I would like to recommend both Ramona Mosier and Cheryl Melton as alternates. Both of these ladies are Tribal members and have received training as Court Advocates. They already have a good working knowledge of the court system and would fit into the position nicely. Appointing two officers of the court will help insure that one be available when needed.

It is of great importance to have someone available to fill in for the judge, since he is only in our court once or twice a month.
