B. Notices; publication; contents.

1. Such notice of incorporation shall show:

6.28.150 Incorporation, Amendment

A. Filing of incorporation. Duplicate originals of the articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the Corporate Administration Board. If the Corporate Administration Board finds that the articles of incorporation conform to tribal law, it shall:

1. Endorse on each such duplicate original the word "filed" and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

2. Maintain one such duplicate original in the office of the Corporate Administration Board.

3. Issue a certificate of incorporation to which the Corporate Administration Board shall affix the other duplicate original and return to the incorporators.

B. Effect of issuance of certificate of incorporation. Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin.

F. Effect of certificate of amendment. Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the Corporate Administration Board, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

A. Qualifications. The business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a board of directors or its functional equivalent, subject to any limitations set forth in the articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe qualifications for directors. A director of a corporation wholly owned by the Tribe need not be a member of the Tribe unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws so prescribe.

B. Number and election of directors.

1. A board of directors must consist of one or more individuals, with the number established in the articles of incorporation or bylaws. Initial directors may be named in the articles of incorporation or elected by the shareholders or, prior to the issuance of shares, elected by the incorporators; thereafter, directors shall be elected at the annual shareholders' meeting, subject to the provisions in Chapter 6.28.160(C). If a corporation is to be wholly or partially owned by the Tribe, the articles or bylaws may provide that the Tribal Council shall vote the Tribe's shares.

2. If the articles of incorporation authorize dividing the shares into classes, the articles may also authorize the election of all or a number of directors by the holders of one or more authorized classes of shares.

C. Terms of directors. At the first meeting of the shareholders and at each annual meeting thereafter, the shareholders shall elect directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting unless otherwise permitted in this Chapter 6.28, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Each director shall hold office for the term for which elected until a successor shall have been elected and qualified.

D. Resignation of directors. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the board of directors or its chairperson.

E. Removal of directors.

1. The shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only with cause. If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove that director.

2. A director may be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing the director, and the meeting notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

F. Vacancies on the board of directors. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, a vacancy on the board of directors may be filled by the board of directors.

G. Compensation of directors. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may fix the compensation of directors.

H. Director conflict of interest. A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has an interest. A conflict of interest transaction is not voidable by the corporation solely because of the director's interest in the transaction if any one of the following is true:

1. The material fact of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors and the board of directors or committee authorized, approved or ratified the transaction by a majority of the board of directors or committee; but the interested director or directors shall not be counted in determining the presence of, or required number to constitute, a quorum and shall not vote.

2. The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorized, approved or ratified the transaction by a majority of the shares entitled to vote that are owned by persons other than the interested director or directors.

3. The transaction was fair to the corporation at the time it was approved.

I. Loans to directors. A corporation may not lend money to or guarantee the obligation of a director of the corporation unless the shareholders approve the loan or guarantee or the board of directors determines the loan or guarantee benefits the corporation and approves the loan or guarantee. A corporation wholly owned by the Tribe may not lend money to or guarantee the personal obligation of a director, officer or employee of the corporation under any circumstances.

6.28.170 Meetings of the Board of Directors

A. Regular and special meetings. The board of directors may hold regular or special meetings within or without the boundaries of the Reservation.

B. Telecommunications meetings permitted. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may permit any or all directors to conduct or participate in a meeting through the use of any means of communication by which all directors may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director so participating is deemed present.

C. Consent to action without meeting permitted. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if a majority of the members take the action. Such action must be evidenced in writing, signed by the requisite number of directors and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records.

D. Notice of meeting. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice of the date, time, place or purpose of the meeting. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for a different period, special meetings of the board of directors must be preceded by at least forty-eight (48) hours' notice of the date, time and place of the meeting. Either before or after a meeting, a director may waive, orally or in writing, any required notice, and a director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice unless the director objects at the meeting's beginning and does not vote thereafter on actions at the meeting.

E. Quorum and voting. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, a quorum consists of a majority of the number of directors, provided that in no event shall a quorum consist of fewer than one-third the number of directors. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number.

A. Required officers. A corporation has the officers described in its articles or bylaws or appointed by the board of directors in accordance with the articles or bylaws. The articles or bylaws of the board of directors shall delegate to one of the officers responsibility for preparing minutes of the directors' and shareholders' meetings and for authenticating records of a corporation. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in a corporation. Each officer has the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties prescribed by the board of directors.

B. Resignation and removal of officers. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the corporation. A board of directors may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

C. Contract rights of officers. The appointment of an officer does not itself create contract rights, nor does the resignation or removal of an officer affect the contract rights, if any, of the officer or corporation. The removal is without prejudice to any contract rights of the officer.

6.28.190 General standards for directors and officers

A. Discharge of duties. Directors and officers shall discharge their duties:

1. In good faith.
2. With the care an ordinary and prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances.
3. In a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation.

B. Reliance. In discharging his or her individual duties, a director or officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

1. One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the officer or director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.
2. Legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters the officer or director reasonably believes are within that person's professional or expert competence.
3. A committee of the board of directors upon which the officer or director does not serve, if such officer or director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

C. Directors and officers are not liable for any action taken in their corporate capacity, or any failure to take any action, if they performed the duties of office in compliance with this section.

6.28.200 Shareholders, meetings, voting

A. Meetings of shareholders. A corporation may hold a meeting of shareholders on an annual or other less frequent periodic basis, but such meetings need not be held unless required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws or by Section 6.28.200(C). Annual meetings need not be held within the boundaries of the Reservation, but annual meetings of corporations wholly owned by the Tribe shall, if held, be held within 100 miles of the Reservation.

B. Effect of failure to hold meetings. The failure to hold an annual meeting does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

C. Demand of shareholders for meetings. If a regular meeting of shareholders has not been held during the immediately preceding four-hundred (400) days, a shareholder or shareholders holding three percent (3%) or more of the voting power of all shares entitled to vote may demand a regular meeting of shareholders by written notice of demand given to an officer of the corporation. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of the demand by an officer, the board of directors shall cause a regular meeting of the shareholders to be called and held on notice no later than ninety (90) days after receipt of the demand, all at the expense of the corporation. If the board of directors fails to cause a regular meeting to be called and held as required by this section 6.28.200(C), the shareholder or shareholders making the demand may call the regular meeting by giving notice as required by section 6.28.200(F), all at the expense of the corporation.

D. Special meetings for corporation wholly owned by the Tribe. In the case of corporations wholly owned by the Tribe, a special meeting may be called and held in the same manner as applicable law provides for meetings of the Tribal Council.

E. Necessary action. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by the holders of a majority of shares or the holders of a majority of each class of shares entitled to vote. Such action must be evidenced in writing, signed by the requisite number of shareholders and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes and records.

F. Notice of shareholders' meetings. A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time and place of each annual or special shareholders' meeting at least ten (10) days before the meeting. A shareholder may waive notice and a shareholder may be deemed to have waived notice if the shareholder attends the meeting, unless the shareholder objects at the beginning of the meeting and does not vote during the meeting.

G. Voting entitlement of shares; proxy voting. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, and subject to the provisions of section 6.28.110(C) of this Ordinance, each outstanding share is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on at a shareholders' meeting. A shareholder may vote a share in person or by proxy, provided that the shareholder has appointed a proxy by signing an appointment and filed the appointment with the corporation prior to the meeting.

H. Voting trusts and agreements. One or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the trust's provisions and transferring the shares to the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall deliver to the corporation the names and addresses of all owners of beneficial interests in the trust, together with the number and class of shares transferred to the trust. Two or more shareholders may also provide for the manner in which they will vote their shares by signing an agreement for that purpose. This section 6.28.200(H) shall not apply to shares in corporations wholly owned by the Tribe.

I. Voting trusts void for corporations wholly owned by the Tribe. Any voting trust or agreement for shares held in a corporation wholly owned by the Tribe shall be void and unenforceable.

J. Quorum. The holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote at a meeting are a quorum for the transaction of business, unless a larger or smaller proportion or number is provided in the articles or bylaws. The shareholders shall take action by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares present and entitled to vote, except where this Ordinance or the articles or bylaws require a larger proportion or number. If the articles or bylaws require a larger proportion or number than is required by this Ordinance for a particular action, the articles or bylaws control.

K. Shareholders; right to dissent; payment; when.

1. Any shareholders of a corporation shall have the right to dissent from, and obtain payment for their shares in the event of any of the following corporate actions:

a. Any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party, except as provided in subsection (3) of this section.

b. Any sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation, otherwise than in the usual and regular course of its business and other than a sale for cash when the shareholders' approval thereof is conditional upon the distribution of all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale to the shareholders in accordance with their respective interests within one year after the date of the sale.

c. Any plan of exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation the shares of which are to be acquired.

d. Any amendment of the articles of incorporation which materially and adversely affects the rights appurtenant to the shares of the dissenting shareholder if such amendment:

i. Alters or abolishes a preferential right of such shares.

ii. Creates, alters or abolishes a right in respect of the redemption of such shares, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase of such shares.

iii. Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of such shares to acquire shares or other securities.

iv. Excludes or limits the right of the holder of such shares to vote on any matter or to cumulate his or her votes, except as such right may be limited by dilution through the issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights.

e. Any other corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote with respect to which the articles of incorporation, the bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors directs that dissenting shareholders shall have a right to obtain payment for their shares.

2. Dissenter's rights.

a. A record holder of shares may assert dissenter's rights as to less than all of the shares registered in his or her name. In that event, his or her right shall be determined as if the shares as to which he or she has dissented and his or her other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

b. A beneficial owner of shares who is not the record holder may assert dissenter's rights with respect to shares held on his or her behalf and shall be treated as a dissenting shareholder under the terms of this Section 6.28.200(K) and of Section 6.28.200(L) if he or she submits to the corporation at the time of or before the assertion of these rights a written consent of the record holder.

3. The right to obtain payment under this section shall not apply to the shareholders of the surviving corporation in a merger if a vote of the shareholders of such corporation is not necessary to authorize such merger or to the shareholders of a bank, trust company, stock-owned savings and loan association, industrial loan and investment company or the holding company of any of such financial institutions.

4. A shareholder of a corporation who has a right under this section to obtain payment for his or her shares shall have no right at law or in equity to attack the validity of the corporate action that gives rise to his or her right to obtain payment, nor to have the action set aside or rescinded, except for mergers authorized under Section 6.28.260(F), or when the corporate action is unlawful or fraudulent with regard to the complaining shareholder or to the corporation.

L. Shareholders; right to dissent; payment; procedure.

1. As used in this section, unless the context requires otherwise:

a. "Dissenter" shall mean a shareholder or beneficial owner who is entitled to and does assert dissenter's rights under Section 6.28.200(K) and who has performed every act required up to the time involved for the assertion of such rights.

b. "Corporation" shall mean the issuer of the shares held by the dissenter before the corporate action or the successor by merger or consolidation of that issuer.

c. "Fair value of shares" shall mean their value immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of such corporate action unless such exclusion would be inequitable.

d. "Interest" shall mean interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at such rate as is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.

2. If a proposed corporate action which would give rise to dissenter's rights under 6.28.200(K)(1) is submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, the notice of such meeting shall notify all shareholders that they have or may have a right to dissent and obtain payment for their shares by complying with the terms of this Section and shall be accompanied by a copy of Sections 6.28.200(K) and 6.28.200(L).

3. If the proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote of a meeting of shareholders, any shareholder who wishes to dissent and obtain payment for his or her shares must file with the corporation, prior to the vote, a written notice of intent to demand that he or she be paid fair compensation for his or her shares if the proposed action is effectuated and shall refrain from voting his or her shares in approval of such action. A shareholder who fails in either respect shall acquire no right to payment for his or her shares under this Section 6.28.200(L) or Section 6.28.200(K).

4. If the proposed corporate action is approved by the required vote at a meeting of shareholders, the corporation shall mail a further notice to all shareholders who gave due notice of intention to demand payment and who refrained from voting in favor of the proposed action. If the proposed corporate action is to be taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall send to all shareholders who are entitled to dissent and demand payment for their shares a notice of the adoption of the plan of corporate action. The notice shall: (a) state where and when a demand for payment must be sent and certificates of certified shares must be deposited in order to obtain payment; (b) inform holders of uncertified shares to what extent transfer of shares will be restricted from the time that demand for payment is received; (c) supply a form for demanding payment which includes a request for certification of the date on which the shareholder, or the person on whose behalf the shareholder dissents, acquired beneficial ownership of the shares; and (d) be accompanied by a copy of Section 6.28.200(K) and Section 6.28.200(L) of this Ordinance. The time set for the demand and deposit shall be not less than thirty (30) days from the mailing of the notice.

5. A shareholder who fails to demand payment or fails, in the case of certified shares, to deposit certificates, as required by a notice pursuant to subsection (4) of this section, shall have no right under this Section 6.28.200(L) or Section 6.28.200(K) to receive payment for his or her shares. If the shares are not represented by certificates, the corporation may restrict their transfer from the time of receipt of demand for payment until effectuation of the proposed corporate action. The dissenter shall retain all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are modified by effectuation of the proposed corporate action.

If the proposed corporate action shall be abandoned or rescinded or the shareholder shall revoke the authority to effect such action, then the right of such shareholder to be paid the fair value of his or her shares shall cease.

6. Immediately upon effectuation of the proposed corporate action or upon receipt of demand for payment if the corporate action has already been effectuated, the corporation shall remit to dissenters who have properly made demand and, if their shares are certificated, have deposited their certificates, the amount which the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the shares, with interest if any has accrued. The remittance shall be accompanied by:

a. The corporation's closing balance sheet and statement of income for a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen (16) months before the date of the remittance, together with the latest available interim financial statements.

b. A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares.

c. A notice of the dissenter's right to demand supplemental payment, accompanied by a copy of sections 6.28.200(K) and 6.28.200(L) of this Ordinance.

7. Fair value.

a. If the corporation fails to remit as required by subsection (6) of this section, or if the dissenter believes that the amount remitted is less than the fair value of his or her shares or that the interest is not correctly determined, he or she may send the corporation his or her own estimate of the value of the shares or of the interest and demand payment of the deficiency.

b. If the dissenter does not file such an estimate within thirty (30) days after the corporation's mailing of its remittance, he or she shall be entitled to no more than the amount remitted.

8. Unsettled demands.

a. Within sixty (60) days after receiving a demand for payment pursuant to subsection (7) of this section, if any such demands for payment remain unsettled, the corporation shall file in the Tribal Court a petition requesting that the fair value of the shares and interest thereon be determined by the Court.

b. All dissenters, wherever residing, whose demands have not been settled shall be made parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares. A copy of the petition shall be served on each such dissenter. If a dissenter is a nonresident, the copy may be served on him or her by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

c. The jurisdiction of the Tribal Court shall be plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have such power and authority as shall be specified in the order of their appointment or in any amendment of such order. The dissenters shall be entitled to discovery in the same manner as parties in other civil suits.

d. All dissenters who are made parties shall be entitled to judgment for the amount by which the fair value of their shares is found to exceed the amount previously remitted, with interest.

e. If the corporation fails to file a petition as provided in subsection (8)(a) of this section, each dissenter who made a demand and who has not already settled his or her claim against the corporation shall be paid by the corporation the amount demanded by him or her, with interest, and may sue therefor in the Tribal Court.

9. Right of corporation to withhold remittance.

a. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section 6.28.200(L), the corporation may elect to withhold the remittance required by subsection (6) of this section from any dissenter with respect to the shares of which the dissenter, or the person on whose behalf the dissenter act, was not the beneficial owner on the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action. With respect to such shares, the corporation shall, upon effectuating the corporate action, state to each dissenter its estimate of the fair value of the shares, state the rate of interest to be used explaining the basis of such rate of interest, and offer to pay the resulting amounts on receiving the dissenter's agreement to accept them in full satisfaction.

b. If the dissenter believes that the amount offered is less than the fair value of the shares and interest determined according to this section, he or she may, within thirty (30) days after the date of mailing of the corporation's offer, mail to the corporation his or her own estimate of fair value and interest and demand their payment. If the dissenter fails to do so, he or she shall be entitled to no more than the corporation's offer.

c. If the dissenter makes a demand as provided in subsection (b) of this Section 6.28.200(L)(9), the provisions of subsection 6.28.200(L)(8) shall apply to further proceedings on the dissenter's demand.

10. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares. Unless the dissenting shareholder shall file such petition within the time herein limited, such shareholder and all persons claiming under him or her shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the corporate action and shall be bound by the terms thereof.

11. Shares reacquired by a corporation pursuant to a payment of the agreed value therefor, or payment of the judgment entered therefor, as in this section provided, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as in the case of other treasury shares except that, in the case of an effected merger or consolidation, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or consolidation may otherwise provide.

6.28.210 Dissolution

A. Voluntary dissolution by incorporators. A corporation which has not commenced business and which has not issued any shares may be voluntarily dissolved by its incorporators at any time in the following manner:

1. Articles of dissolution shall be executed in duplicate by a majority of the incorporators and verified by them and shall set forth:

g. That a majority of the incorporators elect that the corporation be dissolved.

2. Duplicate originals of the articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the Corporate Administration Board. If the Corporate Administration Board finds that the articles of dissolution conform to law, it shall:

a. Endorse on each of the duplicate originals the word "filed" and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

b. File one of the duplicate originals in the Corporate Administration Board's office.

c. Issue a certificate of dissolution to which the Corporate Administration Board shall affix the other duplicate original.

3. The certificate of dissolution, together with the duplicate original of the articles of dissolution affixed thereto by the Corporate Administration Board, shall be returned to the incorporators or their representative. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution by the Corporate Administration Board, the existence of the corporation shall cease.

B. Voluntary dissolution by consent of shareholders. A corporation may be voluntarily dissolved by the written consent of all its shareholders. Subject to Chapter 6.32 of the Squaxin Island Tribal Code, a corporation wholly owned and operated by the Tribe shall only be dissolved voluntarily by a resolution adopted by a two-thirds majority of the then voting members of the Tribal Council, upon recommendation and approval of such resolution by the board of directors of the dissolving corporation. Upon the execution of such written consent, a statement of intent to dissolve shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation, by its president or vice president, or in the case of corporations wholly owned by the Tribe by the chair and vice chair of the Tribal Council, and in all cases, by the corporation's secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The names and addresses of its officers.
3. The names and addresses of its directors.

4. A statement that written consent has been signed by the shareholders of the corporation or signed in their names by their attorneys thereunto duly authorized.

C. Voluntary dissolution by act of corporation. A corporation may be dissolved by the act of the corporation, when authorized in the following manner:

2. A corporation wholly owned and operated by the Tribe with no shares having been issued shall be dissolved by a resolution adopted by the board of directors and separately concurred in by a two-thirds majority of the then-voting members of the Tribal Council.

3. Written notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this Ordinance for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders and, whether the meeting be an annual or special meeting, shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of dissolving the corporation.

4. At such meeting a vote of shareholders entitled to vote shall be taken on a resolution to dissolve the corporation. Such resolution shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of the corporation entitled to vote thereon, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event the resolution shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote thereon as a class and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

5. Upon the adoption of such resolution, a statement of intent to dissolve shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by (a) its president or a vice president, and (b) by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:

a. The name of the corporation.

b. A copy of the resolution adopted by the shareholders or the Tribe authorizing the dissolution of the corporation.

The manner and basis of converting the equity securities of each corporation into securities of the new corporation or of any other corporation or, in whole or in part, into cash or other property and, if any equity securities of such corporation are not to be converted solely into securities of the new corporation, the cash, property or securities of any other corporation which the holders of such equity securities are to receive in exchange for, or upon conversion of, such equity securities and the surrender of the certificates evidencing them, which cash, property or securities of any other corporation may be in addition to or in lieu of securities of the new corporation.

4. With respect to the new corporation, all of the statements required to be set forth in articles of incorporation for corporations organized under this Ordinance.

5. Such other provisions with respect to the proposed consolidation as are deemed necessary or desirable.

C. Exchange of shares; procedure. All the issued or all the outstanding shares of one or more classes of any domestic corporation may be acquired through the exchange of all such shares of such class or classes by another domestic or foreign corporation pursuant to a plan of exchange approved in the manner provided in this Ordinance. The board of directors of each corporation shall, by resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of exchange setting forth:

1. The name of the corporation the shares of which are proposed to be acquired by exchange and the name of the corporation to acquire the shares of such corporation in the exchange, which is hereinafter designated as the acquiring corporation.

2. The terms and conditions of the proposed exchange.

3. The manner and basis of exchanging the shares to be acquired for shares, obligations or other securities of the acquiring corporation or any other corporation or, in whole or in part, for cash or other property.

4. Such other provisions with respect to the proposed exchange as are deemed necessary or desirable.

The procedure authorized by this section shall not be deemed to limit the power of a corporation to acquire all or part of the shares of any class or classes of a corporation through a voluntary exchange or otherwise by agreement with the shareholders.

D. Merger, consolidation or exchange; approval of shareholders; exception.

1. The board of directors of each corporation in the case of a merger or consolidation, and the board of directors of the corporation the shares of which are to be acquired in the case of exchange, upon approving such plan of merger, consolidation or exchange, shall by resolution direct that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of its shareholders, which may be either an annual or special meeting. Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting not less than twenty (20) days before such meeting, in the manner provided in this Chapter 6.28, for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders and, whether the meeting be an annual or special meeting, shall state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed plan of merger, consolidation or exchange. A copy or summary of the plan or merger, consolidation or exchange, as the case may be, shall be included or enclosed with such notice.

At such meeting, a vote of the shareholders shall be taken on the proposed plan. Each outstanding share of each such corporation shall be entitled to vote on the proposed plan, whether or not such share has voting rights under the provisions of the articles of incorporation of such corporation. The plan shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each such corporation, unless any class of shares of any such corporation is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event, as to such corporation, the plan shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total outstanding shares. Any class of shares of any such corporation shall be entitled to vote, if any such plan contains any provision which, if contained in a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation, would entitle such class of shares to vote as a class and, in the case of an exchange, if the class is included in the exchange.

After such approval by a vote of the shareholders of each corporation, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger, consolidation or exchange, the merger, consolidation or exchange may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, submission of a plan of merger to a vote at a meeting of shareholders of a surviving corporation shall not be required if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

a. The articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation do not differ except in name from those of the corporation before the merger.

b. Each holder of shares of the surviving corporation which were outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger is to hold the same number of shares with identical rights immediately after.

c. The number of voting shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the number of voting shares issuable on conversion of other securities issued by virtue of the terms of the merger and on exercise of rights and warrants so issued, will not exceed by more than twenty percent (20%) the number of voting shares outstanding immediately before the merger.

d. The number of participating shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the number of participating shares issuable on conversion of other securities issued by virtue of the terms of the merger and on exercise of the rights and warrants so issued, will not exceed by more than twenty percent (20%) the number of participating shares outstanding immediately before the merger.

3. As used in subsection (2) of this section:

a. "Voting shares" shall mean shares that entitle their holders to vote unconditionally in elections of directors.

b. "Participating shares" shall mean shares that entitle their holders to participate without limitation in distribution of earnings or surplus.

E. Merger, consolidation or exchange; articles; contents; filing.

1. Upon such approval, the articles of merger, the articles of consolidation or the articles of exchange shall be executed by each corporation by its president or a vice president, and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and shall set forth all of the following:

a. The plan of merger, consolidation or exchange.

b. As to each corporation the shareholders of which were required to vote thereon, the number of shares outstanding and, if the shares of any class were entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class.

c. As to each corporation the shareholders of which were required to vote thereon, the number of shares voted for and against such plan, respectively, and, if the shares of any class were entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such plan, respectively.

d. As to the acquiring corporation in a plan of exchange, a statement that the adoption of the plan and performance of its terms were duly approved by its board of directors and such other requisite corporate action, if any, as may be required of it.

2. The original and a duplicate copy of the articles of merger, consolidation or exchange shall be delivered to the Corporate Administration Board, who shall, when all fees provided by law shall have been paid:

a. Endorse on the original the word "filed" and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

b. File the original in the office of the Corporate Administration Board.

c. Return to the surviving, new or acquiring corporation, as the case may be, or its representative, the duplicate copy stamped with the date of filing in the office of the Corporate Administration Board.

F. Merger; subsidiary corporation; procedure.

1. Any corporation owning ninety-five percent (95%) of the outstanding shares of each class of another corporation may merge such other corporation into itself without approval by a vote of the shareholders of either corporation. Its board of directors shall, by resolution, approve a plan of merger setting forth all of the following:

a. The name of the subsidiary corporation and the name of the corporation owning ninety-five percent (95%) of its shares, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

b. The manner and basis of converting the shares of the subsidiary corporation into the shares, obligations or other securities of the surviving corporation or of any other corporation or, in whole or in part, into cash or other property.

c. The business purpose or purposes for the proposed merger demonstrating a bona fide corporate need for the merger.

2. A copy of such plan of merger shall be mailed to each shareholder of record of the subsidiary corporation.

3. Articles of merger shall be executed in duplicate by the surviving corporation by its president or a vice president, and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and shall set forth all of the following:

a. The plan of merger.

b. The number of outstanding shares of each class of the subsidiary corporation and the number of such shares of each class owned by the surviving corporation.

c. The date of the mailing to shareholders of the subsidiary corporation of a copy of the plan of merger.

4. On and after the thirtieth (30th) day after the mailing of a copy of the plan of merger to shareholders of the subsidiary corporation, or upon the waiver thereof by the holders of all outstanding shares, duplicate originals of the articles of merger shall be delivered to the Corporate Administration Board. If the Corporate Administration Board finds that such articles conform to law, it shall, when all fees and taxes have been paid:

a. Endorse on each of the duplicate originals the word "filed" and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

b. File one of such duplicate originals in the Corporate Administration Board office.

c. Issue a certificate of merger to which the Corporate Administration Board shall affix the other duplicate original.

5. The certificate of merger, together with the duplicate original of the articles of merger affixed thereto by the Corporate Administration Board, shall be returned to the surviving corporation or its representative.

G. Merger, consolidation or exchange; when effective; consequences.

1. A merger, consolidation or exchange shall become effective upon filing and recording in the office of the Corporate Administration Board of the original of the articles of merger, consolidation or exchange or on such later date, not more than thirty (30) days subsequent to the filing thereof with the Corporate Administration Board, as shall be provided for in the plan. When such merger or consolidation has become effective:

a. The several corporations which are parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single corporation, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that corporation designated in the plan of merger as the surviving corporation, and, in the case of a consolidation, shall be the new corporation provided for in the plan of consolidation.

b. The separate existence of all corporations which are parties to the plan of merger or consolidation, except the surviving or new corporation, shall cease.

c. Such surviving or new corporation shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers and shall be subject to all duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this Ordinance.

d. Such surviving or new corporation shall thereupon and thereafter possess all the rights, privileges, immunities and franchises of a public as well as of a private nature of each of the merging or consolidating corporations. All property, real, personal and mixed, all debts due on whatever account, all other things and causes of action and all and every other interest of or belonging to or due to each of the corporations so merged or consolidated shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such corporation without further act or deed and shall thereafter be the property of the surviving or new corporation to the same extent as they were of each of such merging or consolidating entities. The title to any real estate, or any interest therein, vested in any of such corporation shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such merger or consolidation.

e. Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated; and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such corporations may be prosecuted as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any such corporations shall be impaired by such merger or consolidation.

f. In the case of a merger, other than a merger under the provisions of 6.28.260(F), the surviving entity's articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the plan of merger, and, in the case of a consolidation, the statements set forth in the articles of consolidation, and which are required or permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of corporations organized under this Ordinance shall be deemed to be the original articles of incorporation of the new entity.

g. The net surplus of the merging or consolidating corporations which was available for the payment of dividends immediately prior to such merger or consolidation, to the extent that such surplus is not transferred to stated capital or capital surplus by the issuance of shares or otherwise, shall continue to be available for the payment of dividends by such surviving or new corporation.

2. When a merger, consolidation or exchange has become effective, the equity securities of the corporation or corporations party to the plan that are, under the terms of the plan, to be converted or exchanged, shall cease to exist, in the case of a merger or consolidation, or be deemed to be exchanged in the case of an exchange, and the holders of such equity securities shall thereafter be entitled only to the cash, property or securities into which they shall have been converted or for which they shall have been exchanged, in accordance with the plan, subject to any rights under Section 6.28.200(K).

H. Merger, consolidation or exchange; domestic and foreign corporations; procedure.

1. One or more foreign corporations and one or more domestic corporations or any combination of such entities may be merged or consolidated, or participate in an exchange, in the following manner, if such merger, consolidation or exchange is permitted by the laws of the tribe, state or country under which each such foreign corporation is organized:

a. Each domestic corporation shall comply with this Ordinance with respect to the merger, consolidation or exchange, as the case may be, of domestic corporations, and each foreign corporation shall comply with the applicable provisions of the laws of the tribe, state or country under which it is organized.

b. If the surviving or new entity in the merger or consolidation is to be governed by the laws of any tribe, state or country, it shall comply with this Ordinance if it is to transact business on the Reservation and, in every case, it shall file with the Corporate Administration Board:

i. An agreement that it may be served with process within or without the Reservation in any proceeding in the Tribal Court for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic corporation which is a party to such merger or consolidation and in any proceeding for the enforcement of the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any such domestic corporation against the surviving or new entity.

ii. An agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of any such domestic corporation the amount, if any, to which they will be entitled under this Ordinance with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders.

2. The effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations if the surviving or new entity is to be governed by the laws of the Tribe. If the surviving or new entity is to be governed by the laws of any state, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except insofar as the laws of such state provide otherwise.

3. At any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation.

6.28.270 Severability

If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this Ordinance shall be found by the Tribe or a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, such judgment or decree shall not affect, impair, invalidate or nullify the remainder of this Ordinance, but the effect thereof shall be confined to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this Ordinance as adjudged or decreed to be invalid or unconstitutional.

2. Be fined fifty dollars ($50.00) per day for each day it operated on the Reservation without a Business Permit, unless good cause is shown to the Corporate Administration Board as to why such a Business Permit had not been obtained in a timely manner.

B. Sanctions.

1. Any entity doing business on the Reservation without a Business Permit which fails to obtain a Business Permit within the time period required by the Corporate Administration Board as provided for in Section 6.36.060, or any entity whose Business Permit has been revoked by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction pursuant to any provision of this Ordinance or any other Tribal law, shall immediately cease to carry out business on the Reservation; provide that, upon a showing of good cause, the Corporate Administration Board or the Tribal Court may grant the entity a reasonable period during which to conclude its business so long as, during that time, the continuation of such business does not endanger the health, safety or welfare of the Tribe or its members.

2. If the Corporate Administration Board becomes aware that an entity is conducting business on the Reservation without a Business Permit, it shall deliver, by hand, notice to the entity informing it that it is operating on the Reservation in violation of this Ordinance and that such entity shall, within two (2) days, apply for such a Business Permit and pay such fines as are indicated in the notice. However, where the Corporate Administration Board has reason to believe that the health, safety or welfare of residents of the Reservation is endangered by the continuation of such business activity, the Corporate Administration Board may order such business to terminate all business activity until it has obtained a Business Permit.

3. Notwithstanding subsection 6.36.070(B)(1), where the Corporate Administration Board has good faith belief that an entity applying for a Business Permit pursuant to this Ordinance shall, if permitted to commence business on the Reservation, present a danger to the health, safety or welfare of residents of the Reservation, the Corporate Administration Board shall, within ten (10) working days, provide said entity with a written notice setting out the reasons it believes the entity presents such a danger and noticing a date for administrative hearing, such hearing to be held not later than ten (10) days after the delivery of said notice. At such hearing, the entity shall be given an opportunity to demonstrate that its business activity does not present a danger to the health, safety or welfare of the residents of the Reservation. The Corporate Administration Board shall establish necessary procedures for such hearing that comply with the requirements of due process. However, the formal rules of evidence shall not apply. If the Corporate Administration Board finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that a danger does exist, it shall, within two (2) days, so notify such entity, in writing, stating the reasons for such finding. Said entity may appeal the Corporate Administration Board's decision to the Tribal Court, and shall be entitled to an expedited hearing on the matter. If the Corporate Administration Board finds there is no danger, it shall cause to be issued, within two (2) days and upon payment of all required fees, a Business Permit to said entity.

revocation of its Business Permit under any other Tribal law, fails to comply, the Corporate Administration Board shall petition the Tribal Court for, or the Tribal Court on its own motion shall issue, a show cause order as to why said business shall not be excluded from the Reservation. Where the Corporate Administration Board alleges that the business presents a danger to the health, safety or welfare of residents of the Reservation, the Tribal Court shall hold an expedited hearing. If said entity fails to appear or fails to show good cause, the Tribal Court shall order the public safety department to take appropriate action:

a. Where the person or persons engaging in business are not members of the Tribe, the Court shall order the public safety department to physically remove all such persons from the Reservation along with any personal property used in the conduct of said business that can be removed without causing permanent damage to it. For property which cannot be feasibly so removed, such as a building, the Court shall order, and the public safety department shall implement, the incapacitation of said property by padlocking or other nondestructive means so that it can no longer be used carry out business.

c. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) above, the Corporate Administration Board or the Tribal Court may, for good cause, deny such an entity a new Business Permit, may attach such conditions as are appropriate upon the granting of a new Business Permit, or may waive or mitigate the provisions of subsections (a) and/or (b) above.
